

C	Scope of Nursing Management
1	Head of room, giving feedback in the implementation of nursing care
2	Head of room, inform important matters related to nursing care
3	Head of room, does not involve nurses from the beginning to the end of nursing care activities
4	Head of room, giving motivation in increasing knowledge, skills in nursing care
5	The head of the room always gives praise to nurses who are successful in carrying out nursing care
6	Head of room, guides nurses in carrying out nursing care properly
7	The head of the room always increases collaboration with other team members in nursing care
8	The head of the room provides motivation in the form of rewards to outstanding nurses
9	The head of the room provides direction on the implementation of nursing activities such as guard operands, pre and post conferences
10	The head of the room always gives directions to nurses to provide health education in discart planning				